Every three years the Junior League of Hartford takes over a unique home or estate in the Greater Hartford area, selects regional designers to decorate the interior spaces and landscape the surrounding grounds, and sells tickets to the public for viewing of the completed house. The Junior League of Hartford has held 11 Decorator Show Houses over a 33-year span, and raised more than $1.35 million for its programs and projects.

The Decorator Show House is the League's largest event-based fundraiser. Proceeds from the Show House are used to fund its community projects and programs, which currently focus on the alleviation of hunger.

About The Junior League of Hartford – Celebrating 90 Years of Service

The Junior League of Hartford, Inc. is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women, and improving communities through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable. For 90 years, the League has researched current community needs and developed and implemented targeted community service projects to address those needs. This year, the League celebrates the anniversaries of its programs The Clothes Horse, Souper Sustainers, Links & Laughter, The Backpack Program, and Freshplace.
